ABOUT THE LANDMARK

Museggmauer

The Musegg Wall is the best-kept stretch of Lucerne's medieval town walls: 870 metres of stone with nine towers along the ridge north of the old town. In summer you can climb four of them and look over the roofs to the lake and the Alps.

On the Musegg hill along the northern edge of Lucerne's old town, a short walk uphill from the river Reuss.

Built	from about 1370 into the 15th century
Length	870 metres, about 9 metres high
Towers	nine, from the Nölliturm by the river to the Dächliturm
Tallest	Luegisland, 52.6 metres, also the oldest (about 1367)
Clock	Zytturm, 1535, by Hans Luterer, still running
Open to visitors	Männliturm, Luegisland, Zytturm and Schirmerturm (in summer)

LOOK CLOSER

The clock that strikes first

The Zyturm clock of 1535 is the oldest in Lucerne. As a privilege it strikes the hour one minute before all the other clocks in town.

The little iron man

On top of the Männlilturm stands an iron figure with a standard, the 'Männli' that gave the tower its name.

A wall with a view

Today the towers are lookouts: from the top you see the Chapel Bridge, the lake and, on clear days, the Pilatus and the Rigi.

The display stand

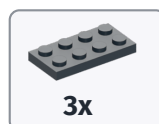

Every model in the series stands on the same black stand with a nameplate, so your souvenirs line up on the shelf. Build the black strip, press it under the front edge of the model, and press the small 2 × 4 plates (the feet) under its back corners. Then stick the label from the nameplate page on the tan tiles.

Your nameplate

One minute early

Look at the big clock on the tower at the right: the Zyturm.

Its clock was made by Hans Luterer in 1535 and is the oldest in Lucerne. As a privilege it may strike the hour one minute before every other clock in town.

The little figure on top of the Männlitemurm on the left is an iron soldier with his standard.
